

UNIT 5 REVIEW ACTIVITY (20 pts):

DIRECTIONS: To help you make important comparisons between the three countries studied in this unit on European absolutism, your task is to create a simple visual to show the depth of your understanding with respect to each of the following prompts:

(1) Show and compare how Louis XIV and Peter I each centralized their power (tamed the nobility) and increased the reputations of their respective countries in Europe. (5 pts)

(2) Consider the advice that Cardinal Richelieu wrote about in his “Political Will and Testament.” Which of these two rulers followed the advice of Richelieu most closely in their rule? Which was most absolute in their power? How do you know? (5 pts)

(3) How does the path of England differ from France and Russia during this time period? What accounts for this difference? What is the legacy of this difference for us today? (5 pts)

FORMAT: Must be titled, be visually pleasing, organized, neat, informative, and grammatically correct. (5 pts)

UNIT 5 REVIEW ACTIVITY (20 pts):

DIRECTIONS: To help you make important comparisons between the three countries studied in this unit on European absolutism, your task is to create a simple visual to show the depth of your understanding with respect to each of the following prompts:

(1) Show and compare how Louis XIV and Peter I each centralized their power (tamed the nobility) and increased the reputations of their respective countries in Europe. (5 pts)

(2) Consider the advice that Cardinal Richelieu wrote about in his “Political Will and Testament.” Which of these two rulers followed the advice of Richelieu most closely in their rule? Which was most absolute in their power? How do you know? (5 pts)

(3) How does the path of England differ from France and Russia during this time period? What accounts for this difference? What is the legacy of this difference for us today? (5 pts)

FORMAT: Must be titled, be visually pleasing, organized, neat, informative, and grammatically correct. (5 pts)